Beyond Awareness

Turn hope into help

An opportunity to advance Hoosier behavioral health

Mental Health America of Indiana is Indiana's leading advocacy organization in behavioral health. MHAI leads with strong dedication to the mental health and well-being of all Hoosiers through prevention, public education, advocacy, recovery, and direct service. Our decades-long influence, from the local community to the Indiana Statehouse, has led to expansive changes, that have drastically increased access to services for all Hoosiers. Additionally, MHAI's dedication to training, credentialing, and field placement opportunities for the behavioral health workforce, has not only created impactful careers for those with a lived experience, but has also supported hundreds of thousands of Hoosiers on their path to recovery.

This long-term positive change catapulted Indiana's national behavioral health ranking from the lower bottom half to the top half. Our mission remains critical as we navigate the challenges of today, driven by an unwavering dedication to improving the lives of individuals and communities. With your dedicated support, Mental Health America of Indiana can continue our work of advancing the well-being of all people in Indiana

About Good Buddy Golf Outing

Why "10-4 Good Buddy" – Back in 2011 or 2012, Patrick took to journaling his random thoughts. He thought about all the days we honor those we love; Valentines Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day and a whole list of others. He wanted there to be a day where a guy could just let a buddy know that he loves him and is glad to call him his buddy. He would call it "Good Buddy Day". And then he thought- what better day to celebrate this? If you're thinkin' October 4th, "That's a 10-4 Good Buddy!" Then he laughed with his unmistakable laugh. So, these annual golf outings are to celebrate Patrick's spirit, love and friendship as well as raise money to help others, who like Patrick, suffer an illness that nobody knows about.
